The Daily Courant.

Moscow, October 22.

THE Tartars on the other Side of the Rivers Pruth and Dnieſter have been pretty quet theſe four Weeks paſt, from whence it is conjectured that they have ſtrict Orders from the Porte to keep their Hords in good Order and Diſcipline. We hear that the laſt Expreſſes arrived from Aſtracan confirm the good Condition our Conqueſts in Perſia are in. Ten Days ago a conſiderable Supply of Money was ſent to Veronitz under a ſtrong Guard, deſigned for the Payment of our Forces in Perſia. His Majeſty has given Orders to certain Statuaries to caſt his Statue in Braſs, which is to be ſet up in his Caſtle here called Kremelin.

Stockholm, Nov. 18. It is believed that Prince Maximilian the King's Brother will paſs the Winter here, ſince no Preparations are yet made for his Journey to Germany. It begins already to freeze very hard here; we had abundance of Snow theſe five Days paſt. The 50 Veſſels which were ſeveral Weeks detained by contrary Winds, are at laſt ſafely arrived here from Finland. M. Baſſewitz, the Holſtein Miniſter, who during the Seſſion of the late Dyet employed his utmoſt Efforts in order to ſtrengthen the Duke of Holſtein's Party, with a Deſign not only to acknowledge him as Prince Royal of Sweden, but alſo as preſumptive Heir to the Crown, 'tis ſaid, has ſo far ſucceeded in it, that the Dyet came to the following Reſolutions, viz. That the ſaid Duke is acknowledged Prince of the Royal Blood of Sweden, and in that Quality the Title of Royal Highneſs is given him, with the Penſion annexed to it, according to the Laws and Cuſtoms of the Kingdom. - - - But as this Reſolution did not determine the Diſpute depending, viz. Whether the Crown devolves by Succeſſion and Hereditary Right, or by Election of the Dyet aſſembled when the Throne ſhould become vacant? The Duke's Party therefore was not ſatisfied with the forementioned Reſolution, and 'tis ſaid that the ſecond proved more favourable to his Royal Highneſs, if it is ſo, that it entitles him to the Succeſſion by virtue of an Election of this preſent Dyet, without prejudicing the Rights of the Houſe in ſubſequent Dyets. Nevertheleſs, this laſt Reſtriction ſeems to leave that Matter in the Dark, to wit, Whether the Duke of Holſtein is actually declared Succeſſour to the Crown by the Election of this firſt Dyet, ſo as to tie the enſuing Dyets up to this Reſolution, or whether it is ſtill left to the Choice of the future Dyets to make new Laws either about the Succeſſion or the Election of a Succeſſour, according to the Exigencies of the Kingdom's Welfare.

Hague, Nov. 26. This Morning the States of Holland broke up their Aſſembly, not having yet ſurmounted the Difficulties which obſtruct the taking off the remaining Half of the Hundredth Penny Tax Extraordinary, but 'tis the general Opinion they will finiſh that Matter at their next Meeting; when they will alſo reſume the Conſideration of their Cuſtom-Duties inwards and Outwards. 'Tis reported they deſign to ſend a Deputation to the Province of Zealand upon that Head, that Province having hitherto refuſed their Conſent to the Farming the ſaid Duties. By a Ship arrived ſome Days at Rotterdam from Lisbon, Advices are received of the Abatement of the Sickneſs which was very rife there for ſome time paſt.

Nov. 5. Mr. St. John Brodrick reported from the Committee appointed to take into Conſideration the Petition of John Bingham, Eſq; that they had come to ſeveral Reſolutions in the Matter to them referred, which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered at the Table, where the ſame were again read, and are as follow.

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Petitioner hath fully proved the Allegations of his Petition.

Reſolved, That it appears to this Committee, that John Bingham, Eſq; has behaved himſelf with great Loyalty to His Majeſty, and with becoming Zeal and Integrity in the Support of His Government, by vigorouſly putting the Laws in Execution againſt the Papiſts and their Adherents.

Reſolved, That it appears to this Committee, that a wicked Conſpiracy was maliciouſly contrived and carried on againſt the ſaid John Bingham, to take away his Life and Fortune.

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that John Brown of Raheen, Eſq; and his Accomplices, were the chief Promoters and Adviſers of the ſaid Conſpiracy.

Reſolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the ſaid John Brown is a Perſon not fit to ſerve His Majeſty in any Office or Employment, Civil or Military whatſoever.

Reſolved, That the ſaid John Brown has in the Courſe of his Examination, groſly prevaricated with this Committee.

To all which Reſolutions the Queſtion being ſeverally put the Houſe did agree Nem. Con.

Ordered, That the ſaid John Brown, be for his ſaid Prevarication, taken into the Cuſtody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe.

Ordered, That His Majeſty's Attorney General do proſecute the ſaid John Brown, for contriving and maliciouſly carrying on the ſaid Conſpiracy, to take away the Life of the ſaid John Bingham and others.

Ordered, That all Orders of the Day not proceeded on, be adjourned till To morrow Morning.

The Transparent RUBICUND LIQUID,

Which gives such a beautiful florid Colour to the Cheeks of those who are pale or white, as not to be exceeded by the finest Natural Complexion in the World, not to be distinguish'd from it, or perceived to be Artificial by the most intimate Friend, it being nothing of Paint, or subject like that to be rub'd off, neither is it disabling to use, or in any respect hurtful, but as harmless as Fair Water, and good in many Cases to be taken inwardly. It has a pleasant Scent, and is to be used without any manner of Trouble; and, by the most agreeable blushing Colour it gives (which may be heightened or lower'd at pleasure) makes those who are wan of pale, thro' Weakness, Indisposition, or even Age itself, appear charming fair and most exquisitely beautiful; for it seems to add Spirit and Life to the Muscles of the Face, that before look'd faint and languid, giving a surprizing bright Air to every Feature, and an inexpressible youthful Bloom to the whole Countenance. Is to be had only by the Author's Appointment, of the Gentlewoman at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon-yard in the Minories, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle, (containing enough to last a long Time) with Directions.

A short and infallible Cure for the Itch, of any itching Humour, or Scorbutick Breaking out whatsoever, tho' it be never so bad, or of never so long standing, by a Specific Efficacy, particularly adapted for that purpose, and many Years experienced: It is the most wonderful Secret in the World for the Cure of that troublesome Distemper, and the Scurvy: For in two or three times taking it certainly cleanses and rectifies the Blood and Juices, to Admiration, frees them from all manner of Impurities, and absolutely strikes at the very Root of the Itch or other Scorbutick Breakings out, gives infallibly to accomplish a Cure in two or three Days, to a Miracle and that with the greatest Ease and Safety imaginable, without the least Trouble or Confinement. Is now sold only (since Mrs. Bridbow left off Shopkeeping) by Mr. Sanders, Haberdasher of Small Wares, at the Blue-Ball in Fenchurch-street, near Aldgate, at 3 s. a Bottle with Directions.
